Step by step guide

This app can combine shopping lists of all the roommates, keep track of all the general expenses shared, have a cleaning schedule for everyone which also reminds you when is your turn and you have a pin board for important notifications.

Important to highlight!

There are many other apps that can facilitate living arrangements among roommates. They can search for others or create their own system to share their household duties.

Before you start cooking, keep in mindâ?!

All the roommates need to be on-board with the idea and have a phone.
